with Sally

"We're going to have a pretty crowded Shopper this week, aren't we?" we began tentatively this morning.

The Editor beamed. The Ad Man beamed. The Make-Up Editor beamed. Even the Circulation Manager beamed.

"You bet we are," replied the Ad Man. "Turning them away from the door."

"Ten full pages," bragged the Make-Up Editor. "A special Easter edition. The biggest Shopper we've ever put on the presses."

"And look at those specials!" chimed in the Circulation Manager. "Easter bunnies, Easter rabbits, Easter candies, grocery specials—every page crammed to the hilt."

Aha! we thought to ourselves, now is the time to strike. We've got them just where we want them. Happy. Beaming. Feeling tender about the Easter bunny.

We attracted attention with a loud and hypocritical sigh.

"Guess we'll just have to let the column go this week," we said, trying to look noble. "No room for it."

The unwonted cheer disappeared as if by magic.

"Sally, are you trying to start that argument again this week?" roared the Editor.

"Well, it's Easter," we remonstrated faintly. "We just thought since it was a holiday—"

The Editor had paused for breath. "And besides," we added hastily, "we want to take time out to go to church Sunday morning. All the Daly City churches are having special services, spe-

Early Disease Theory

The germ explanation of disease was advanced by a Viennese scientist, Fracastoria, as early as 1546.

Beginnings of Kindergarten

Marie Montessori, the Italian educator, studied at the University of Rome and graduated in medicine in 1894, being the first woman in Italy to do so. She then took up the subject of educating defective children. From the experience thus acquired, she came to the conclusion that similar methods might be applied to normal children of a lower age, and after a series of experiments on a small scale she extended them to a large number of children in private and public nursery schools in Rome. Her ideas on education have been put forth in several books which have been widely translated.

Hilltop Lodge In Full Swing

Hilltop Lodge is now once again in full swing of Daly City's night life. It has been modernized throughout and new booths are installed.

Lee Jorgensen, proprietor, extends a cordial invitation to old friends to make the Hilltop their headquarters. James Crudo and Joe Rosset are in charge of refreshments, and dancing is enjoyed nightly.

S. F. Lad Drowns In Water-Filled Gulley

George Irish, 13, 5508 Mission street, was drowned late Friday afternoon, when his raft upset in a water-filled gully off Alemany boulevard near Foote street.

Despite the efforts of his companion, 14-year-old Walter Lindley, George sank in the eight feet of water. Unable to rescue him, Walter notified a passing motorist who called police.

It took two men more than an hour to recover the body. Later in the evening, the San Francisco fire department drained the pool.

Ted Seremi, 24, 3308 San Jose avenue, was on of the searchers.

Marin Club Plans Fifth Annual Dog Show

Plans for the fifth annual dog show to be staged by the Marin North Bay Kennel club in California park, San Rafael, an event which will bring together some six hundred of the finest pedigreed dogs from all parts of California and the west generally, were announced this week by Charles W. Ward of the Oak Crest ranch at Sleepy Hollow and secretary of the Marin North Bay Kennel club.

Date for the show was fixed for Sunday, June 2. Gates will open at 10 a. m., and judging by six of the foremost dog experts of California will be continuous all day, interspersed with special events of particular interest to dog lovers.

Satire and National Life

Satire, like the poet's Lily of Malud, is born of corruption; and the "secret mud" that generates it is full of poisonous germs of suspicion, envy, hatred, malice and all uncharitableness. In the literature of a nation satire is generally one of the latest forms of self-expression to be developed and brought to perfection. For the natural impulse of literature, and especially of poetry, is the celebration of what is beautiful and revered.

POIGNANT FILM RE-CREATES INCIDENT OF CHRISTMAS TIME IN WAR-TORN EUROPE

With war filling the front pages of newspapers, the dramatic re-creation of a memorable incident of the last World War when Russian and Austrian soldiers faced each other across No Man's Land on Christmas night and sang the hymn, "Silent Night," is one of the most effective sequences in "Balalaika," the spectacular musical now at the Daly City theatre, with Nelson Eddy and Ilona Massey as the stars.

The war incident was reproduced with absolute authenticity under the technical guidance of Count Andrey Tolstoy, a former officer of the Czar who fought with the Russian troops.

"Balalaika" is a story of Old Russia before, during and after the revolution. It is based on the London stage musical success by Eric Maschwitz and is one of the most elaborate productions in which Nelson Eddy has appeared.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Earl of Chicago," starring Robert Montgomery and Edward Arnold.

Extent of Leprosy

It has been estimated that 3,000,000 persons in various parts of the world are afflicted with leprosy.

Ilona Massey

Arbitrary Date Line

The International Date Line is an irregular line which is drawn somewhat arbitrarily on the map of the Pacific ocean, near the 180th meridian of longitude. This line marks the place where navigators "change their date" on the trans-Pacific voyage. The line is drawn on the map in a general north-and-south direction, separating the islands of the Pacific ocean in such a manner that all those in the east carry the same date as the United States, and those in the west the same date as Japan and Australia.

George and Millie

(Editor's Note: Tecimical information for this series has been supplied by The New Process Laundry.)

Dear Mother:

Papa and I are taking George home from the hospital today. He is very pale and shaken and I think he is really somewhat repentant for his escapades of the past few weeks.

However, I feel very upset because heshas never once said he will go back to conducting his classes and drop this silly crusade. Furthermore, he's never said I could send our clothes to the laundry.

I could really murder the man! I would, only the hospital bill is already ENORMOUS.

Love,
MILLIE.

County Red Cross Aids Finland's Civilians

For the aid of civilian relief in Finland the San Mateo county chapter of the American Red Cross reports that 145 knitted articles made by 31 volunteers have been shipped by the chapter to Finland. The chapter has been advised that the first shipments of these articles are actually in use.

All articles have been knitted by local residents, who purchased the wool through the Red Cross headquarters.

Miss Helen Percy Chesebrough, vice-chairman, stated today that wool is now available for those who desire to knit for this purpose and are not in a position to purchase the wool. However ,wool may still be purchased by those who desire to knit for this relief provided all articles knitted are returned to headuarters for shipment. All articles knitted from wool either secured free or purchased from the chapter headquarters must be returned to the chapter for shipment.

Kathleen Norris Speaks To S. M. Women

Labelling as "fantastic and absurd" the assertion of war minded and fear-ruled individuals, that America will be "next" in case Hitler's or Stalin's or Japan's armies are victorious in Europe or Asia, Kathleen Norris, in a straight-from-the-shoulder talk, won the complete accord of San Mateo county women, when the National Legion of Mothers of America met on Tuesday night, March 5, with the South San Francisco unit as hostess unit to San Mateo county women.

These women, earnest in their desire to find a way to keep America out of war and purposeful in their determination to find that way and carry through to a victorious conclusion, hung on every inspired word of their national leader and president.

Mothers of America have three clear-cut points for their aim of peace: "to keep our boys at home; to support an active program of adequate national defense, and to quell subversive groups whose object it is to destroy the American form of government."

Among the committee chairmen of the Peninsula group is Mrs. Al Doyle, Daly City.

"Eggs - Try!" Easter Recipes

By BETTY BARCLAY

One or two special dishes should be prepared for Easter. Christmas and New Year's dinners may have exhausted your supply of new recipes; so here are a few "eggstry" Easter suggestions:

Basta Fazoul
(a one dish meal)
2 cups cooked, dried Limas
2 cups tomato sauce or strained tomatoes
1 tablespoon chopped onion
½ pound spaghetti
6 tablespoons bacon fat
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Cook the spaghetti in boiling salted water until soft and drain. Cook the onion in the fat, add tomato, Limas and spaghetti.

Fish in Lemon Aspic
(Serves 6-8)
1 tablespoon gelatine
¼ cup cold water

Sprinkle gelatine on water. Add:
1¼ cups hot water
¾ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
6 tablespoons lemon juice

Cool. Add:
1½ cups any cooked, flaked fish (salmon, tuna, etc.)

Turn into mold and chill until firm. Unmold and decorate with lettuce hegrts and fancy lemon garnishes. Serve with Tartare sauce.

Pineapple Cheese Salad
1 tablespoon gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
Syrup drained from pineapple gems plus water to make ¾ cup
2 packages (8 oz.) cream cheese
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ cup mayonnaise
1 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 — 14 oz. can Hawaiian pineapple gems (drained)
½ cup nut meats, broken
¼ cup preserved ginger, cut in small pieces, if desired

Soften gelatin in cold water five minutes; dissolve in pineapple syrup and water which has been brought to a boil. Mash cheese to soften; add salt, mayonnaise, whipped cream, dissolved gelatin and lemon juice. When partially thickened fold in pineapple and nuts, also ginger, if desired. Turn into individual molds and place in refrigerator until firm. Serve on crisp lettuce.

Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Rhubarb Meringue Pie
1½ cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk
2½ tablespoons lemon juice
2 eggs, separated
1 cup freshly stewed rhubarb
2 tablespoons sugar
Vanilla wafer pie crust

Blend sweetened condensed milk, lemon juice and egg yolks. Fold in rhubarb which has been drained. Pour into pie plate (9-inch) lined with vanilla wafer pie crust. Cover with meringue made by beating egg whites until stiff and adding sugar. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 minutes or until brown. Chill before serving.

Vanilla Wafer Pie Crust

Cut enough vanilla wafers in halves to stand around edge of 9-inch pie pan and put them in place. Roll enough vanilla wafers to make ¾ cup of crumbs. Mix thoroughly with 4 tablespoons of melted butter. Cover bottom of pie pan, pressing firmly into place. Pour in filling as usual.

Café Au Lait

If you want a delicious hot drink any time of day or night, try café au lait (coffee with milk) made with decaffeinated coffee, so that there won't be any danger of sleepless hours later on. Use 1½ heaping tablespoons decaffeinated coffee to each cup (½ pint) water. Make by any method desired. Have ready a pot of hot milk. When serving, pour milk and coffee together into cup in equal amounts. If using decaffeinated coffee drip grind, measure well-rounded tablespoon instead of heaping tablespoon.

Oil Field Production
The fields of California, Oklahoma and Texas alone have produced more oil to date than have all those of Russia.

Wild Flowers on Rainier
A total of 556 varieties of wildflowers bloom on the alpine meadows of Mt. Rainier, three-mile-high snow peak in Washington state.

Genius and Love
When the supreme light in us inspires the intellect we have genius, when it stirs the will we have heroism, when it flows through the heart we have love.

Development of Bicycle
The general idea of the bicycle is suggested in ancient carvings, but the machine was not successfully developed until the Nineteenth century.

What!

In the Doghouse Again?

How sad that in your little home,
Discord and strife should rear their dome;
And all because a dress was torn,
Your little heart should be forlorn.

Now isn't it sad that hubby cries,
And swears he'll blacken both your eyes,
And all you did was scorch the collar
Of a shirt that cost three times a dollar.

But maybe he's got a right to complain,
And you don't want his love to wane,
And so if you're wise you'll mend your ways
And send out the laundry the rest of your days.

EASTER DINNER is something SPECIAL

by Dorothy Greig

EASTER dinner is the climax to one of the most cheerful of all the festive days of the year. After we have been to church, watched the Easter parade and done a little strutting ourselves in our new spring clothes, then it's time for dinner. So we get seated around the table, keen of appetite and feeling well pleased with ourselves. Dinner itself will probably feature ham in some form or other since that is traditional for Easter. The meal might be this:

*Recipe given below.

*Easter Soup with Crisp Chopped Bacon
Toast Sticks
Hot Glazed Baked Ham
*Escalloped Potatoes and Mushrooms
Fresh Asparagus with Butter
Corn Sticks
*Tossed Green Salad with Egg and Anchovy Dressing
Lemon Meringue Pie
Coffee or Milk

What a lovely tasting soup that Easter Soup is! This is how it is made:

Easter Soup with Crisp Chopped Bacon

1 can condensed pea soup
1 can condensed celery soup
1 can condensed chicken soup
2 cans milk (using soup can for measure)
6 pieces crisp bacon (chopped)

Mix the celery soup into the pea soup. Then add the chicken soup and two cans of milk, using the soup can for a measure. Heat, but do not boil. Sprinkle the crisp chopped bacon on top of the soup. Serves 6-8.

Mushroom flavor is a new touch for potatoes:

Escalloped Potatoes and Mushrooms

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup milk
6 cups cooked potatoes, sliced
½ teaspoon salt
1 pinch pepper
1 tablespoon chopped onion
6 tablespoons buttered bread crumbs or cornflakes

Empty the cream of mushroom soup in a saucepan and stir well. Then add the milk. Put a layer of potatoes into a buttered casserole dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper, add half of the onions and mushroom sauce. Repeat with second layer and put buttered bread crumbs or cornflakes over the top. Put casserole into moderate (350°) oven 30-40 minutes. Serves 6-7.

This Egg and Anchovy Dressing given a gala air to a plain green salad.

Egg and Anchovy Dressing

1 tablespoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon anchovy paste
1 cup salad oil
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup condensed tomato soup
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped

Combine dry mustard, sugar, salt and anchovy paste. Then add salad oil, vinegar and tomato soup. Mix well and at the last stir in the hard-cooked egg. Makes 2½ cups dressing.

Easter Can Be Feast Day for Reducer

If you are one of the thousands of persons who are trying to shed excess poundage via the reducing diet route, the mention of Easter dinner probably doesn't excite much interest. For to the average person following a strict reducing program, Easter means just another special feast day for "the other fellow," when you must sit by and watch him enjoy the proverbial roast leg of lamb with all the "fixin's."

But listen to this! The business of being a martyr gastronomically is out of date, when it comes to reducing. Science has found that the person seeking to reduce can and should eat well, not only on Easter Sunday but on every other day in the year. Research work at Rush Medical College in Chicago has proved conclusively that excellent results can be obtained by the use of a liberal well-balanced diet. In this study the meals prescribed to a large group of patients of varying ages were high in protein, and included meat, bread, butter, vegetables, salad, fruit, eggs and coffee or tea.

So don't despair. The delicious roast leg of lamb and most of the "fixin's" can be yours, without the slightest twinge of conscience, if you will only abide by a few simple rules.

Easter Lamb With All the "Fixin's"

Following is a menu for a suggested Easter dinner for the family, from which the person who is reducing may select his diet:

Consommé
Roast Leg of Lamb
Parslied New Potatoes
Carrot Soufflé
Nests filled with New Peas
Fresh Vegetable Salad
French Dressing
Rolls Butter
Angel Food Cake
with Crushed Strawberries
Coffee

From this menu an overweight person whose weight should be from 135 to 145 pounds may have the following:

Consommé	As desired
Roast Lamb (lean)	7 oz.
Carrot Soufflé and Peas	3½ oz.
Salad (little dressing)	3½ oz.
Roll	1 oz.
Butter	1/6 oz.
Strawberries	3½ oz.
Coffee (black)	As desired

Movie Film

On a visit to the penal colony on Devil's island, French Guiana, Cameraman Pierre-Andre Martineau discovered the world's most enthusiastic movie fan. He was a convict whose body bore tattooed portraits of Garbo, Marlene Dietrich, Mary Pickford and other film stars. His gallery is now complete; he has no more room for pictures.

Largest Jewel

The Smithsonian institution has acquired the world's largest jewel. The stone is an almost flawless crystal of topaz, weighing 153 pounds, or 350,000 carats. The average topaz for a ring or necklace weighs about five carats. The huge gem was discovered in the Minas Geraes province of Brazil. Its color is pale blue on the outside and a pale sherry on the inside.

Eight Ounce Gloves

The International Amateur Boxing federation has stipulated gloves in bouts under its jurisdiction must weigh eight ounces, the leather and stuffing not to exceed four ounces each.

Biggest Building

The biggest building in Europe is the Palace of Justice at Brussels. It covers an area 12 per cent greater than that of St. Peter's at Rome.

Rubber Costumes

Rubber sheeting has been successfully used for stage costumes.

Ghetto in Amsterdam

Probably no Ghetto in Europe has more American visitors than the one in Amsterdam. They come to No. 41 Waterloo Plein to see where Spinoza was born, and to the house at No. 4 Jodenbree street where Rembrandt lived for 16 years.

cial music, special speakers. And there will be special Easter sunrise services on Mount Davidson and at Emerald lake bowl."

"If you can get up at sunrise, Sunday," the Editor pointed out grimly, "you can get here at 9 o'clock in the morning to write your column."

"But we're dyeing eggs," we protested in a last desperate effort. "You wouldn't want Sammy and Sue Ann to lose their faith in the Easter bunny, would you?"

The Editor made a supreme effort to control himself. But we could see that the fight was lost.

"Every child in Daly City is invited to a monster Egg hunt at Jefferson, Sunday," he exploded. "It starts at 1 p. m. There will be a cowboy band playing. There will be hundreds of colored eggs. There will be special prizes. There will be free ice-cream. FREE ICE CREAM!" he repeated.

We had already quailingly begun to write our column.

"And just one thing more," growled the Editor as he went back to work, "You'd better not have me wearing purple spats again in that column or you and the Easter bunny will both be looking for new jobs on Monday morning."

Football Trophy

The John W. Heisman Memorial trophy is awarded each year to the football player deemed the most valuable. It perpetuates the memory of a football coach and gridiron mentor at many colleges for 35 years. The Robert W. Maxwell trophy, also awarded to the outstanding player, is named in honor of Robert W. (Ting) Maxwell, a former all-America player, sports writer and gridiron official. The August V. Lambert Memorial trophy, emblematic of leadership among eastern gridiron teams, was donated by Victor A. and Henry L. Lambert of New York city in memory of their father, an ardent football fan.
